

FROM PAGE TO POPCORN

Promoting YA books through movie adaptations, tie-ins and themes.

Debbie Sternklar, Voorheesville Public Library

Page to Popcorn titles from 2015 Middle School Booktalks

Coming Soon to a Screen Near You!

No need to wait for the next movie release,
READ THE SEQUEL NOW!

With eight Marvel and DC Superhero Movies being released in 2016,
theaters will
look like this!
Make sure your Graphic Novel section does too!

Lead Teens from their favorite movies and TV shows to Readalikes with booklists!

If I Stay and Where She Went
by Gayle Forman
The Fault in Our Stars
by John Green
Maybe One Day
by Melissa Kantor Wintergirls
by Laurie Halse Anderson Shine by Lauren Myracle
More Than This
by Patrick Ness
Before I Fall
by Lauren Oliver
Two Girls Staring at the Ceiling by Amelie Sam Drums, Girls and Dangerous Pie

Bulletin Board & Display Ideas

Crossover idea from Pinterest sources: Include QR codes to book trailers (or movie trailers) for titles on the display.

Bulletin Board & Display Ideas

Sources for book to movie lists:

Goodreads – “Books Becoming Movies in 2016” and “Books that Should be Made into Movies”

Both lists are open for reader voting and contributions.

Source for Comic to Movie list: <http://comicbook.com/2015/01/06/8-marvel-dc-superhero-movies-scheduled-for-2016/>

Sources for movie trailers:

Internet Movie Database www.imdb.com

Shelf Awareness listserv

Sources for bulletin boards & displays:

Pinterest

librarydisplays.org

Bloglovin’ Library Displays